

Office of Sustainability and Environment

Supplemental Materials

Board of
Aldermen

Climate Change Plan

Benefits

Long-term climate change planning process

Sustainability Coordinator

Request Details:$85,000 to hire a new Sustainability Coordinator

- $66,950 classification C salary + appx. $18,000 in projected benefits
- Position will increase the department's project management capacity

Benefits

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Manage the City's energy data and identify municipal energy improvements.</li><li>• Work with DPW and Capital Projects to develop energy projects, improvements, efficiencies, and grants.</li><li>• Spearhead energy and climate change outreach and community engagement as part of the climate change planning process.</li></ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Manage the Somerville GreenTech program and expand the model to pilot new technologies.</li><li>• Manage the City's environmental projects, including the implementation of the plastic bag ordinance and the impervious surface study / strategies.</li></ul> |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Board of
Aldermen

City of Somerville FY17 Budget