

Patrick J. Halloran

EDUCATION

BA (2006) Norwich University

Major – Criminal Justice

BA (2013) Salem State University

Major- Fire Science

Certificate (2014) Bunker Hill College

Fire Protection and Safety

EXPERIENCE:

10/10 – Present -Fire Fighter: Duties include but are not limited to fire suppression in structural as well as wild land environments and emergency medical services under highly stressful emergency conditions.

Also, fire prevention, public education, vehicle and station maintenance under the supervision of a Captain, always focusing on providing quality customer service. Training includes: High angle rescue, confined space rescue, trench rescue, building construction for the fire service.

7/09 – 9/10 U.S Army Company Commander: Commander of a Basic Combat Training Company responsible for the health, welfare, and training of 240 Soldiers in Training per cycle, 24 Cadre members, and 2 Civilians. Principally responsible for all actions occurring within the company. Responsible for developing tactically and technically proficient Soldiers capable of performing full spectrum Army operations immediately upon entering the force. Responsible for the maintenance and security of four vehicles, 242 weapons, and assigned equipment worth over $3.5 million. Directly responsible for planning, resourcing, executing, supervising, and evaluating training.

- 1 of 5 Commanders recognized by FT Knox Commanding General and awarded the Army Accident Prevention Award for no time lost due to accident or injury for the period of one year post wide.
- Consistently awarded the battalion safety streamers for holding the highest standards in cadre physical fitness and safety during the 3rd and 4th quarters of FY 09 and 1st quarter FY 10
- Spearheaded the certification process for Soldiers in training that is now used as the battalion standard.

06/08 – 06/09 U.S Army National Training Center Protocol Escort Officer: Responsible for planning, coordinating, and executing visits to the National Training Center for over 1200

General Officers, local, state, and national leaders, foreign visitors and civilian dignitaries each year; serves as a command representative to better inform military and civilian leaders about the National Training Center as it has evolved to support the Global War on Terrorism; serves as the Chief of Protocol in his absence; responsible for the accountability of three Humvees, six vans, and associated equipment worth in excess of $2 million dollars; additional duties include Security Manager, Information Assurance Security Officer, Information Management Officer, Building Manager.

- Personally escorted over 300 foreign and U.S. military, government and corporate officials.
- Developed NTC Protocols automation program and responsible for purchasing over $15000 worth of equipment.
- Strong resolve and calm demeanor during periods of high operations tempo led to selection as interim Aide-de-camp to the Commanding General of the NTC.

11/06 - 05/08 U.S. Army Mechanized Infantry Platoon Leader: Platoon Leader of a Bradley Fighting Vehicle equipped, mechanized infantry rifle platoon. Responsible for the health, morale, combat readiness, training, and welfare of 32 Soldiers. Maintains accountability and operation readiness of equipment worth in excess of $6 million including four Bradley Fighting Vehicles.

Trains the platoon to function independently, or as part of the company, and to accomplish all assigned missions. Ensures platoon is trained and ready to deploy on short notice, fight, and win in its execution of wartime operations or contingency deployments.

- Led platoon from the front through Rotational support for the two largest National Training Center Rotations in recent history.
- 1 of 90 to earn coveted Expert Infantry Badge out of 300 soldiers.