POLICE APPROVAL .

Ricky and T&P are sending you signatures. I can't get in touch with anyone in SPD, but I spoke to John Aufiero and he's ordered 1 detail and approved this. Waiting to talk to Chief Kelleher now so we should be all set. I sent info to the Aldermen (at their request).

A quick update on this filming:

I'm waiting for Matt to resubmit the permit application with corrected location, dates and times, and will confirm when I have that. It looks like Nunziato is the only available option, and Ald. McWatters has approved its use.

DPW, T&P, and SPD are all on board as well, and SPD will require one uniformed officer on detail for this shoot.

Matt, as is protocol, will be required to send notification to all abutters that includes a phone number of a crew member.

Thank you for your assistance and advice!

Jackie,

I had not thought about a police detail but we should require one just so that we are sure they set up and break down in the approved time frame.

Please let me know outcome from this e-mail before tonight.

Thanks,
Maryann

SVG Films

Letter of intention for Nunziato Field
Chainsaw Maidens filming July 2014

Chainsaw Maidens has been a 4 year endeavor by local resident and artist Matthew Martino. He has been hard at work turning this fun and exciting movie project into something truly unique and dynamic. Already utilized are numerous local actors and crew members which include producer Steven Dulong, actor Allen McRae, Production Manager Sophia Caciolla. His company SVG Films has partnered with a Hollywood movie distributor to ensure that this film sees as large an audience as possible.

A college campus is invaded by demons. It is up to the captain of the football team and his chemistry tutor to fight them off. They descend into the underworld and recruit a few Chainsaw Maidens which culminates in a slapstick battle on a sports field between the student body and the demons. SVG Films is looking to get usage of a field in Somerville to film the final sequence.

Filming will take primarily at night between 8pm and go no later than 12am. Although large scale gathering are typically noisy, our film set should be so loud as to effect local residents. We will be using sensitive microphones so our actors do not need to be too loud. We will be using some bright lights, but they will not even come close to being as bright as a typical street light. We aim to make a minimal impact on the neighborhood as we possibly can in terms of disturbance.

Matthew Martino is no stranger to producing films and events in Somerville. In 2007 he brought Horrorville to Union Square - a large scale haunted house for the Halloween season. In 2009 he produced another feature film, The Drachen Recruitment Experiment, shot entirely in Somerville. Since 2007 he has been a volunteer and board member of East Somerville Main Streets where he was Chairmen of the Committee in 2010 that shaped Carnival at Somerstreets which continues to this day. Matt continues to be a force in the Somerville art scene where he is currently producing The Armory of Horror to bring a major Halloween show to Somerville this Fall.
