1. There are two races this day, on opposite sides of the City and at different times. Jerry Carvalho believes they can handle both. Dominic agreed to push his start time a little later (1:30) to be sure this will work. They have only a few hundred runners, and set up and break down are inside of Orleans. They need two parking spots reserved in front of Hodgkins Park for the start line, but otherwise it should be fine. I will follow up with SPD and SAPD.
