- 4.2. Resolution By Councilor Sait, Councilor Mbah, Councilor Link, Councilor Clingan,
(ID # 26-0508) Councilor Hardt, Councilor Ewen-Campen and Councilor Strezo
In support of the Plant Based Treaty.

Councilor Sait explained the purpose of the Resolution and sponsored Veronika Potter, Brandon Luo and Rosa Diaz Rivera to speak on the matter. Ms. Potter explained that the Plant Based Treaty addresses the environmental impacts of our food system. Mr. Luo stated that the leading contributor to emissions in Somerville is food, with meat and dairy as the largest sources. Ms. Diaz Rivera commented that Somerville would be the second city in Massachusetts to endorse the Plant Based Treaty as a practical solution to climate change. Councilor Hardt stated that animal agriculture in the United States has become more concentrated and industrialized, with the goal and effect of producing profits for some of the largest multi-national corporations in the world. Councilor Mbah commented that this Resolution is about equity, health and community.

RESULT: APPROVED

- 4.3. Ordinance By Councilor Ewen-Campen, Councilor Link, Councilor Hardt, Councilor
(ID # 26-0522) Scott and Councilor Clingan
Proposing an amendment to Section 2-6 of the Code of Ordinances, the Welcoming Communities Ordinance, to further enhance civil rights protections in Somerville.

Councilor Ewen-Campen stated that people in Somerville are living through an unprecedented time of federal assault on our constitutional rights. The proposed amendment would strengthen the city's position of not cooperating with any agency that would seek to penalize someone for participating in constitutionally protected activities. He sponsored Gideon Epstein, counsel with the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), to address the Council. Mr. Epstein explained that the proposed amendment closes critical gaps in the present ordinance and provides residents the opportunity to seek injunctive or declaratory relief for violations.

RESULT: REFERRED FOR RECOMMENDATION

- 4.9. Resolution (ID # 26-0628) By Councilor Hardt and Councilor Scott
That the Commissioner of Public Works and the Director of Infrastructure and Asset Management appear before this Council to discuss the process of monitoring progress on addressing double poles and abandoned wires, with the goal of eliminating the potential hazards, tree damage, and nuisances associated with both.

This item was discussed with item #26-0627.

Councilor Hardt stated that the double pole issue needs to be addressed systematically, and this resolution is an attempt to do so. Councilor Scott noted that a part of this effort is bringing the external parties to the table to ensure that they are doing the things required by state law. Councilor Hardt noted that councilors now have access to the utility pole information database, NJUNS.

This item was discussed with item #26-0623.

Executive Director of the Office of Strategic Planning and Community Development Thomas Galligani explained that the funds will be used to move forward with the acquisition of the commercial condominium unit that houses the Assembly Square fire station. Currently, the space for the station is leased by the city and Director Galligani explained that by acquiring this property, the city will save approximately $1 million over the next 28 years. Councilor Scott inquired about the amount of real estate taxes that the city currently pays under the lease agreement and what those payments will be when the property is acquired by the city. Director of Finance, Ed Bean, advised Councilor Scott that he can follow up with the Chief Assessor to address this accurately. Director Galligani noted that the city would have to pay yearly condo fees of approximately $6,400 per year. He also explained that at the present time, a purchase and sale agreement has not been finalized, however, City Attorney Cindy Amara explained that the purchase and sale agreement must comply with the terms of the offer that was accepted. Councilor Scott requested that a copy of the accepted offer be provided to him this evening for review.
