Subject: Porchfest and keeping the streets open to motorvehicles

Hi

I went to porchfest yesterday and was surprised the streets were not closed to motorvehicles.

I saw several cars speeding really close to pedestrians and crowds enjoying the event. My partner and me were harassed by a driver.

And then I find the following reddit thread were a man threatening a pedestrians with his car:

Why are the streets not being closed too regular traffic? It will make the event safer and more enjoyable for everyone.

Thanks,

David
