

Jeffrey DiGregorio

WORK EXPERIENCE

SOMERVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT, Somerville, MA

2001 - Present

Captain, February 2021-Present

- Working knowledge of IT/Communications: acting as the point of contact for all technical needs, radio system, implementation of e-citations;
- Managing all civilian staff to include but not limited to E911, Records, and Matron Staff: completing performance evaluations, collaborating with State 911 administration, managing staffing issues, regulating training, and serving as the point of contact for all program needs
- Overseeing all training as well as Training Lieutenant: reviewing firearms training, In-service training, and specialized training requests
- Regulating records: FOIA requests, records retention, CJIS and QED
- Maintaining SPD Headquarters and sub-stations: coordinating improvements and maintenance, cell block audits, monthly generator testing, tracking 311 work orders, overseeing custodians, and reviewing purchase orders
- Managing SPD Fleet: coordinating cruiser assignments, procurement, and maintenance
- Assisting Internal Affairs: reviewing use of force reports and cruiser involved motor vehicle accidents
- Serving as the Public Information Officer: Preparing press releases and communicating with the media
- Helping the department adapt to Covid-19: issuing policy, PPE procurement, employee testing and vaccination
- Aiding the executive office: making recommendations to the Chief and the Deputies
- Facilitating hiring: acting as promotions manager for police personnel and assisting with hiring of civilian staff
- Conducting OSHA compliance checks: yearly survey and potential for audits
- Coordinating Details: prioritizing assignments, enforcing of detail policy, collaborating with the city engineering department, managing billing, and acting as a liaison to the city's finance department
- Member of the new public safety building project committee

Lieutenant, April 2015 - February 2021

- Command patrol division's daily operations
- Ensure work schedules are accurate and current to reflect proper staffing and ensure public safety
- Responsible for processing arrestees and maintaining their well-being while in Somerville Police custody
- Administrative Lieutenant March 2017- February 2019
- TI simulator instructor- November 2019- present- teach officers and civilian employees through interactive video scenarios in regards to use of force, critical decision making, and de-escalation techniques
- Public Information Officer- February 2020-present
- Served as COVID response liaison between the City of Somerville and the Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency
- Member of the City of Somerville's Marijuana Advisory Committee
- Oversaw the compliance with the City of Somerville's Surveillance Technology Policy and drafted the police department's surveillance impact reports

Sergeant, March 2011 - March 2015

- First line supervisor for patrol division
- Responded to critical incidents and emergencies
- Provided backup and knowledge to patrol officers when responding to calls that may lead to risk of public safety

Jeffrey DiGregorio

Detective Sergeant, February 2014 - February 2015

- Directly supervised Court Liaison Officer and Evidence Office assigned to Criminal Investigation Division
- Responsible for scheduling officer court appearances and acted as liaison between the District Attorney's Office, Court Personnel, and the Somerville Police Department

Detective, February 2010 - March 2011

- City Hall Liaison
- Assigned to Mayor's Office and Inspectional Services

Patrol Officer, October 2001 - March 2011

- Responded to emergency calls for service
- Enforced motor vehicle laws through stops and citations
- Enforced laws via arrests, criminal complaints, and citations
- Routinely patrolled assigned area to ensure public safety
- Provided assistance to fellow officers when needed
- Assigned to the Auto Break Task Force 2008

MIDDLESEX DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, Framingham, MA

1999 - 2000

Support Staff, Sexually Dangerous Persons Unit, November 1999-August 2000

- Aided Assistant District Attorney's on civil commitment cases by gathering relevant court documents and acting as liaison for expert witnesses, attorneys and law enforcement personnel
- Researched potential candidates for civil commitment by reviewing criminal records and police reports

Jeffrey DiGregorio

EDUCATION

SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

Boston, MA, January 2004

Juris Doctor, Law

Activities Included: Law Student Advocate, Shelter Legal Services, Environmental Law Society, and member of the American Bar Association

Honors Included: Dean's List

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS BOSTON

Boston, MA, June 2000

Bachelor of Arts, Criminal Justice

Bachelor of Arts, Psychology

Honors Included: Dean's List

CREDENTIALS AND LICENSES

- Attorney (inactive status)
- Real Estate Broker (inactive status)

TRAININGS AND AWARDS

- Fifteen day FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Association Training-Trilogy Award
- Three day Crisis Intervention Team Training
- Three day First Line Supervisor Training
- Three Day TI Simulator Master's Course-Golden, Co- certified master instructor for TI simulator for use of force and de-escalation scenarios
- Two day ICAT (Integrating Communications, Assessment, and Tactics) training- Santa Cruz, CA- program provides skills to use scenario based training to integrate critical decision making, crisis recognition, tactical communications, and operational tactics
- Two day Crime Statistic Training
- One day Search Warrant Training
- One day Narcotics Training
- One day Supervisor Liability Training
- One day Strategic Planning workshop
- One day WebEOC training with Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency
- One day Fair and Impartial Policing Training
- One day Public Records Law training
- Three letters of Commendation
 - 2002 for assisting in the arrest of an armed suspect
 - 2004 for arresting a suspect of a bank robbery
 - 2009 for assisting in the investigation and arrest of two armed robbery suspects
- Meritorious Service Award
 - 2005 for arresting two breaking and entering suspects while in the act in the same week