

Section 15.4.2.b.iii.

The Building Official may not issue a final certificate of occupancy development that does not comply to the following: a). plans submitted for a development review application; b). plans submitted for an approved discretionary or administrative permit; and c). conditions attached to any discretionary or administrative permit (the “Criteria”). During the course of periodic inspections of development by the Building Official, the Building Official shall also examine the development for compliance with the Criteria. In the event that the development is not proceeding in accordance with the Criteria, the Building Official shall order the development to take immediate measures to bring the development into compliance with the Criteria, including a plan satisfactory to the Building Official. In the event that the development fails to take immediate measures to bring the development into compliance as ordered by the Building Official, the Building Official may order the development to stop work until the development is brought into compliance with the Criteria. As part of the inspection process of the development, the Building Official conducting any periodic inspections shall sign an acknowledgement with respect to the development’s compliance with the Criteria.
