

Tufts University
Somerville--University Accountability
October 21, 2016

Total number of students enrolled, Medford Campus:

- Undergraduates: 5,188 (This count does not include students who are enrolled but are studying abroad on Tufts programs. It does not include students who are studying abroad on non-Tufts programs.)
- Graduate students: 2,635 (This count does not include students in the Fletcher GMAP program who only visit the campus for a short time.)

Total number of students residing on campus:

• Dormitories-undergraduates	3,316
• Graduate students	36
• Fletcher students	82
• Tufts-owned fraternities and sororities	73
• Privately-owned fraternities and sororities	68
	3,575

Sixty nine percent of undergraduates who are taking courses live in on campus. Graduate students are more widely dispersed for their housing.

Total number of students residing off-campus:

- Students who have registered off-campus addresses in Somerville:
 - o Undergraduates 849
 - o Graduate students 572

Note: we have Medford off-campus addresses for 604 undergraduates and 671 graduate students

Notes:

- All enrollment numbers were pulled before October 15, the official census date for Tufts students, and represent preliminary data. These numbers are subject to change. An updated report with official numbers will be sent once the final data is accessible in November.
- All fraternities and sororities, regardless of ownership, are recognized as on-campus housing for Tufts students.
- All first and second year undergraduates are required to live in university housing.
- Graduate students live in a variety of communities and not necessarily close to the campus. Some are not currently enrolled in classes but are working on a thesis, etc.
- The number of undergraduates studying abroad is higher in the spring semester.
- Tufts does not rent or lease any property for use as student housing.
