BLOWING THE WHISTLE ON WAR CRIMES IS NOT A CRIME!

Bradley Manning, a 23-year-old Army intelligence analyst, faces life in prison for allegedly sharing a video of a US helicopter attack that killed 11 civilians and wounded two children in Baghdad, Iraq with the WikiLeaks website.

Bradley Manning has also been charged with blowing the whistle on the "Iraq War Logs", the "Afghan Diaries", the "Gitmo Files", and embarrassing US State Department cables. In short, he's been charged with telling us the truth.

Our main handout

WE STAND WITH BRADLEY MANNING Blowing the whistle on war crimes is not a crime

The documents that Bradley Manning has been charged with releasing have added significantly to public knowledge of war crimes, civilian casualties, and government corruption. Some of the released cables have contributed to recent pro-democratic protests globally.

If the US government demands to use our tax dollars and our children to fight these wars, then we demand full disclosure of the facts of these wars being fought in our names. We demand that the government stop the misinformation, and we honor heroes who fight for transparency.

Until his recent transfer to Fort Leavenworth, Bradley Manning was held in isolation and endured extreme pre-trial punishment at the Quantico Marine brig. Sadistically, he was kept naked in a cold cell at night. Due to protests, his conditions have improved; however, the death penalty charge of "aiding the enemy" was added. The real enemy of our government's policies abroad is public opinion at home.
