1. Order
(ID # 22-1459)

By Councilor Pineda Neufeld

That the City Solicitor update this Council on the 8/11/22 Civil Service Commission decision Fairchild, Matthew v. City of Somerville, and the impact on the confirmations process.

Chair Pineda Neufeld asked Mr. Zessin how he would recommend the committee shift its appointment process after this decision. Mr. Zessin explained that the Civil Service Commission was trying to balance Matthew Fairchild's rights with the Council's right to review appointments. They did not state that the Confirmation of Appointments committee could not conduct a review, but there needs to be good reason when bypassing a candidate. He said that their ruling affects the scope and direction of review. He also talked about how the anti-discrimination statute and the Americans with Disabilities Act impose more restrictions on the city as a whole than Chapter 31, which is the statute referred to by the commission.

Councilor Strezo asked how much this case will cost the city, and about the viability of executive sessions. Mr. Zessin said that he could get the cost information for Councilor Strezo at another time. He also replied that the appellant would have certain rights to the discussion that led to the bypass appeal.

Councilor Wilson asked if the political considerations from the ruling refer to the stance of not approving police appointments in the wake of George Floyd's death. Mr. Zessin said that he did not know, but the fact that a councilor made that statement did not help the case. The commission's purpose is to make sure decisions are made only based on merit. Councilor Wilson asked if the ruling leaves any sort of role for this committee in appointments for civil service commissions. Mr. Zessin said that he thought there is still a role, but that it is a “moving target”. Assistant City Solicitor Piques summarized that the Civil Service Commission will be looking for candidates to be reviewed on their own merit.

RESULT: RECOMMENDED TO BE MARKED WORK COMPLETED

2. Order
(ID # 22-0209)

By Councilor Pineda Neufeld
That the Committee on Confirmation of Appointments and Personnel Matters discuss and revise the process for reviewing appointments and re-appointments.

Councilor Wilson asked if the sequencing of the appointment process should be changed. If so, it would need to be a full City Council discussion. Councilor Strezo commented that this topic had been addressed before, and that the councilors on the Confirmation of Appointments committee make the decisions to bring to the full council. Chair Pineda Neufeld said that she preferred to make a decision on this item when all committee members are present.

RESULT: KEPT IN COMMITTEE

Dir. Piantigini spoke to Mr. Sternman's work experience and involvement in activities around Somerville. Councilor Wilson asked the candidate how libraries can continue to innovate in Somerville. Mr. Sternman suggested libraries offer CharlieCards. He also talked about equity and how Somerville libraries can stand up for free expression - perhaps hosting forums on controversial local topics, such as safe consumption sites - in a time when some libraries are banning books. Councilor Wilson asked for one lesser-known service provided by libraries, to which Mr. Sternman replied with the myriad of services provided by libraries, such as musical instrument lending and even tax help. Libraries should present these opportunities in a way that does not overwhelm users.

Councilor Strezo asked one thing that the candidate would change in Somerville libraries in 5-10 years. Mr. Sternman said to do as much as possible to make services available, including governmental services such as license renewal. Chair Pineda Neufeld asked if there are any other improvements to make, to which Mr. Sternman suggested bringing back periodicals.
