We invite five to seven bands and/or artists to perform for thirty minutes or less. The event takes place in the afternoon, lasts for four to five hours, and finish by 7 PM. We will prioritize gender diverse artists that are based in Somerville or the Boston area. As members of the TLGBQ+ community ourselves, we strive to make open minded, accepting, welcoming spaces for queer people and everyone. With approved permits and licenses issued by the City of Somerville, we have been able to put on similar events each year since 2021. For FY2025, we were awarded a Local Cultural Council grant through the Somerville Arts Council.

Social or cultural benefits:

The KLYAM Summer Series provides a space for independent cultural expressions and social interactions within the community. Local musicians are able to showcase their unique talents and gain exposure to a wider audience than usual. Members of the LGBTQ+ community, people of color, and other marginalized groups have been represented through performance, welcomed, and encouraged to be themselves. Additionally, the wide age range of attendees brings a feeling of community. Both performers and attendees are likely to experience something new and different. The public parks are also transformed into a novel use of space. Perfect for families to see a live performance in the sunlight, an alternative to the more common night life experience.
