EXERCISE GOOD JUDGMENT. HELP THE TRAINING ROOM CELEBRATE ITS FIRST ANNIVERSARY AND RAISE MONEY FOR CHARITY

Training Room co-owners Heidi Brown and Maren Kravitz started their business one-year ago during the economic downturn, but plan to celebrate their first anniversary with a charity "spin" event on Saturday, July 24th from noon to 6 PM outside their facility at 691A Somerville Avenue. In conjunction with the start of the Somerville Avenue - Elm Street parking corridor, attendees will be able to "spin" outdoors to display their support for fitness and contribute to charity.

Brown and Kravitz want to give back to the community with the help of their loyal clientele – many of whom are rooted in Somerville – who turned The Training Room into a sustainable local fitness alternative to gyms with monthly membership fees and yearly contracts. By raising money for breast cancer, which affects many of their clients and Somerville residents, The Training Room hopes to increase both awareness of and the importance of exercise and nutrition in living healthier lives.

Come out and support The Training Room and break a sweat as they "spin" into their second year.

The Training Room is a local, privately owned fitness studio offering personal and small group training, cycling, yoga and boot camp classes. There is no membership required to train or participate in a class.
