

Andrew Tkaczuk

EXPERIENCE

Somerville Fire Department— Firefighter

April 2016 - Present

Respond promptly and effectively to fire, medical, and rescue emergencies, prioritizing life safety and property preservation.

Provide critical emergency medical care as a certified EMT since 2016, demonstrating expertise in patient assessment and treatment.

Collaborate seamlessly with fellow firefighters and emergency personnel, ensuring efficient coordination during high-stress situations.

Maintain and inspect fire fighting equipment and apparatus, ensuring their operational readiness.

Contribute to community safety by participating in public education programs and events.

United States Marine Corps — Radio Operator

August 2010 - June 2014

Held a position of significant responsibility for sensitive radio materials, valued at millions of dollars, ensuring their security and functionality.

Managed communications for convoys in Afghanistan, guaranteeing their ability to radio for support, including medevacs, enemy engagements, and explosive ordnance disposal.

Honorable discharge in 2014.

EDUCATION

North Shore Community College — Fire Science

September 2023 - Present

Currently enrolled in the fire science program at NSCC. Eligible for graduation in 2025.

SKILLS

FEMA certified structural collapse technician.

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)

High and low angle rope rescue certified

Confined space rescue certified

Trench collapse rescue certified

