Social or cultural benefits:

We have held this event for the past 3 Septembers in Somerville and it has always generated interest and enjoyment from Somerville residents and others from surrounding towns. Somerville residents note they enjoy seeing music for free with their families and friends. A safe and welcoming alternative to the typical nighttime bar/club setting. Performers are able to introduce family and friends to diverse music and people at a reasonable hour!

Attendees often purchase food and items from nearby Somerville businesses.
