

Michael J. Marino MBA, BSN, RN,CRN

Certifications and Qualifications:

- Massachusetts Registered Nurse
- Certified Radiology Nurse – Association of Radiology/Imaging Nurse
- National Registry Emergency Medical Technician
- Massachusetts Emergency Medical Technician
- AHA BLS Instructor Certification
- AHA ACLS Instructor Certification
- PALS Certification
- OSHA 30 General Construction Safety Certification
- Massachusetts Urban Search & Rescue Technician, UASI
- FEMA Medical Specialist Certification
- FEMA Safety Officer Certification
- MA Professional Firefighter I/II Certification
- Basic Fire Investigator Certification
- Rope, Trench, Confined Space and Ice Rescue Technician
- Certified Trainer Homeland Security Medical/ Mass Casualty Response
- U.S. Navy Search and Rescue Swimmer
- U.S. Navy Chemical, Biological, Radiological Defense/Anti-Terrorism Instructor
- U.S. Navy EOD Technician

Education:

Lawrence Memorial Hospital/Regis College of Nursing Medford, MA
Associates of Science in Nursing
September 2010 to May 2012

University of Massachusetts Boston Boston, MA
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
January 2013 to May 2015

Fitchburg State University Fitchburg, MA
Master of Business Administration
September 2021 to May 2022

Professional Experience:
City of Somerville
Lieutenant/EMT-B/DICO
October, 2007 to Present

Responsibilities include:

- Responds to 911 calls and administers emergency first-aid treatment and life-support care to sick or injured persons in pre-hospital setting. Has to function effectively, think quickly, for the benefit of the patient and their family.
- Co-ordinates the provision of employee testing as the DICO along with outside consultants and safety training organizations to cover areas of Bloodborne Pathogens and Occupational Exposure by employees
- Operate equipment such as external defibrillators and bag-valve mask resuscitators in advanced life-support environments.
- Assess nature and extent of illness or injury to establish and prioritize medical procedures.
- Exhibits good communication skills when dealing with patients and their families/significant others.
- Responds to alarms and assists in the suppression of structural, residential, commercial, industrial, chemical, petroleum, and vehicle fires.
- Perform fire control activities and utilize strategies in the areas of victim rescue, entry, exposure tactics, ventilation, fire containment and extinguishment.
- Responds to miscellaneous emergencies; including rescues, hazardous materials, flooding, and natural disasters, respond to non-emergency situations including false fire alarms, elderly assists, vehicle lockouts.
- Communicates with dispatchers and treatment center personnel to provide information about situation, to arrange reception of victims, and to receive instructions for further treatment.
- Immobilizes patient for placement on stretcher and ambulance transport, using backboard or other spinal immobilization device.

Emerson Hospital
Director, Emergency Management & Environmental Health and Safety
August 2018-Present

Responsibilities include:

- Responds to emergencies that directly or indirectly impact the operation of Emerson Hospital and or its offsite facilities with the guidelines established within Emerson Hospitals Emergency Operation Plans, the Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency (MEMA), the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the National Incident Management System.
- Develops and reviews the Emergency Operations Plan and all offsite facilities in order to meet and/or exceed compliance standards established by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Joint Commission,
- Coordinates responses by all appropriate resources during an actual event to ensure timely and effective response and manages recovery in a post-incident environment.
- Maintains and updates all resource materials associated with emergency preparedness plans, prepares emergency status reports that describe response and recovery efforts, needs, and preliminary damage assessments.
- Coordinates disaster response or crisis management activities

Emerson Hospital
Nurse Manager, Interventional Radiology
July 2014- August 2018

Responsibilities include:

- Coordinated and supported evidence-based patient care
- Interpreted medical reports of patients for radiologic imaging and took necessary steps
- Managed clinical activities at different levels for patient care
- Worked along with multi-disciplinary team for quality care to patients
- Liaises with CCU, MedSurg and Emergency department in assessing patients, coordinating ongoing care and ensuring patients' appropriate placement of PICC lines and PIV insertion.
- Developed and delivered educational materials and training to Hospital staff to enhance specialized patient care within established clinical protocols.
- Provided education to patients, staff, and families for interventional procedures
- Worked with radiologist for getting accurate images of body organs
- Provide and coordinate nursing services for patients and work closely with care providers and ensure quality in care
- Apply evidence-based knowledge in nursing patients
- Administered and controlled all aspects of conscious sedation for the patient.

Emerson Hospital
Registered Nurse, Emergency Room
May 2012-May 2016

Responsibilities include:

- Performs venous and arterial punctures, maintain the intravascular site including tubing and dressings, monitor for infections, initiate emergency therapies, assess patients for adverse reactions and complications, and document all patient-directed activities
- Performs triage, while considering both physical and psychosocial elements and manages basic life support needs.
- Coordinate with the Director, Medical Education to research, design and implement all training programs.
- Organize training venues, logistics, transportation, accommodations as required to achieve effective training attendance and delivery.
- Stabilizes patients until the attending physician is available, based upon nursing standards and protocol.
- Works directly under physicians, assisting them during exams, diagnostic testing and treatments Prepares and administers (orally, subcutaneously, through an IV) and records prescribed medications.
- Trains and Mentors new nurses in Emergency department procedures and policies.
- Serves as the primary coordinator of all disciplines for well-coordinated patient care as well as monitors, records and communicates patient condition as appropriate utilizing computerized documentation systems
- Instructs and educates patients and families while assessing and coordinating patient's discharge planning needs with members of the healthcare team

United States Navy

Explosive Ordinance Disposal (EOD)/ Damage Control Medic

November, 2003 – July, 2007

Responsibilities included:

- Administer emergency first-aid treatment and life-support care to sick or injured personnel in battlefield setting, Operation Iraqi and Enduring Freedom
- Communicate vital patient information with medical personnel and field hospital personnel to provide information on soldiers' medical condition, arrange for helicopter extraction of victims, and to receive instructions for further treatment.
- As Team Leader/Workcenter Supervisor, trained 1400 Sailors and Marines in first aid, self-aid, combat casualty control procedures, and transporting the sick and injured from combat zones.
- Acted as the LPD 18 USS New Orleans Anti-Terrorism Instructor.
- Trained 400 shipboard personnel in chemical, biological and radiological defense.
- Updated and managed database of personnel training records and qualifications.
- Manage and control the locating and disarming of ordinance and improvised explosive devices.
- Operated, repaired and maintained explosives and de-arming equipment, damage control equipment, and chemical, biological and radiological defense equipment.

Awards and Recognition:

- Daisy Award Emerson Hospital, March 2024
- Somerville Veteran Firefighter of the Year, November 2019
- Emerson Hospital MVP, February 2018
- PFFM Firefighter of the Year Award for Bravery November, 2011
- Somerville Fire Department Firefighter of the Year, April, 2011
- Liberty Mutual FireMark Award, November, 2010
- George Dilboy Humanitarian of the Year , August, 2010
- Commonwealth of Massachusetts Citation for Bravery, July, 2010
- Massachusetts State Police Distinguished Service Medal, July, 2010
- U.S. Navy Sailor of the Year (PAC Fleet) San Diego CA, 2006

Professional References: Provided upon Request

