NOTIFICATION OF ACTIONS IN CASE OF NON-PAYMENT AND NOTICE OF RIGHTS

Federal debt management procedures require agencies to notify debtors when their debts become delinquent. These procedures also require agencies to provide notification to delinquent debtors of the collection actions that may be initiated by agencies to collect delinquent debts. Such notification is provided herein.

If you have submitted payment or otherwise settled this debt, please disregard this notification.

payment of the referenced bill issued to you by the United States Geological Survey has not been received, and is delinquent, In accordance with Government regulations, you are hereby notified:

- 1) that any or all of the following actions may be initiated against you in order to collect this debt,
- 2) of your rights pertaining to this debt.

. Referral of the debt to the Department of Treasury: The debt may be referred to Treasury in order to initiate additional collection action. Referral will also result in additional fees added to your debt.

. Offset to reduce Federal payment, including your tax refund: Certain payments from the U.S. government may be reduced by the amount of your debt. Federal payments subject to reduction include your Federal salary or retirement pay, IRS tax refunds, contractor/vendor payment, and certain Federal benefit payments. If you are entitled to receive payment that may legally be offset, we intend to reduce your payment to collect your debt.

. Refer your debt to a private collection agency: Your delinquent debt may be referred to a private collection agency for collection, resulting in increasing costs to you.

. Litigation: The debt may be referred to the DOI Office of the Solicitor or to the Department of Justice, which may result in legal action against you.

. Credit reporting: Your delinquent debt may be reported to national credit bureaus. We intend to disclose to a consumer reporting agency, within 60 days from the date of the attached letter, that you are responsible for this debt. A credit report showing poor payment history may seriously impair your ability to obtain credit.

Your delinquent business debt may be reported immediately to a commercial reporting agency without notice.

. Investigation: The U.S. Treasury may order an investigation of your assets to determine your ability to pay your debt.

. Report your debt to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS): If your debt is determined to be uncollectible, the U.S. Treasury may report your debt to the IRS as income to you (Form 1099). You may owe taxes on this income.

See the next page for notification of rights regarding this debt.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS

1. Administrative Offset. If you are entitled to receive a Federal payment that may be legally offset, we intend to have your debt collected through administrative offset. You have the following rights:

- . You may inspect and copy United States Geological Survey records related to this debt.
- . You may request a waiver of United States Geological Survey determination that you owe a debt or request a waiver of the debt if the law provides for a waiver.
- . You may be entitled to an oral hearing if required by statute or if the agency determines that a determination of the validity of your debt cannot be resolved by a review of the documentary evidence.
- . You may enter into a written agreement with the United States Geological Survey (or with the Department of Treasury if the debt is referred to Treasury for collection) to pay the debt.

2. Credit Bureau Reporting. In case of non-payment, your debt may be reported to national credit bureaus. The information to be disclosed to consumer reporting agencies will include your name, address, taxpayer identification number, the amount, status and history of your debt, and the name of the agency or program under which the debt arose.

You have the following rights with respect to the debts to be reported to consumer reporting agencies:

- . You may conduct a complete examination of your debt.
- . You may dispute information in the United States Geological Survey records about your debt.
- . You may request administrative review of the debt or appeal, unless all administrative appeals have been exhausted.
- . You may be entitled to an oral hearing if required by statute or if the United States Geological Survey determines that the question of the validity of your debt cannot be resolved by review of the documentary evidence.
