

CITATION

Be it hereby known to all that the Somerville City Council offers its sincerest commendations to

Cathy Piantigini

On this occasion of her return to work following a medical procedure. This Council commends Director Piantigini for her steadfast leadership, dedication to literacy, lifelong learning, community engagement, and her invaluable role in strengthening our city through the Somerville Public Library. This Council extends its heartfelt wishes for continued health, strength, and success in her service to our community.
